

EXHIBIT 6

INTERROGATORY NO. 3: State with specificity the set-up of your bedroom including but not limited to the location of your bed to the exterior wall; the location of your closet to the exterior wall; the location of the bedroom door to the exterior wall; the location of the subject HOVERBOARD to the exterior wall; and the location of the toy box to the exterior wall.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff is 10 years old and is unable to recall the information for this interrogatory. However, he will rely upon the testimony of his mother, Stephanie Wadsworth, for this response.

INTERROGATORY NO. 4: State with specificity all other battery powered and/or battery-operated toys or devices in your bedroom on the evening of the Incident.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff is 10 years old and is unable to recall the information for this interrogatory.

INTERROGATORY NO. 5: State with specificity, when you unplugged, or when you observed, the subject HOVERBOARD unplugged, on the evening of the Incident giving rise to this lawsuit.

RESPONSE: Plaintiff does not recall unplugging or observing anyone unplug the hoverboard on the evening of the Incident giving rise to this lawsuit.

INTERROGATORY NO. 6: Identify with specificity and detail, each and every item or category of damage you intend to claim in this case and provide a dollar amount claimed for each category to the extent the category is quantifiable.

RESPONSE: Any and all damages resulting from the fire and related to the property; any and all personal property loss, medical expenses, loss of consortium and any other expenses related to the incident, not limited to:

Professional Counseling Services, LLC
50 Shoshone Avenue